

50 LEADING WOMEN IN HEDGE FUNDS 2022

Caroline Cooley

Managing Partner and Chief Investment Officer, Crestline Summit Strategies, Fort Worth, Texas

Caroline Cooley joined Crestline in 1998 and is Managing Partner and Chief Investment Officer of Crestline Summit Strategies, a multi-strategy, multi-portfolio manager, market neutral hedge fund manager. She also serves on Crestline Inc.'s (parent company) Management Committee. A veteran of the alternative investment industry, Cooley has experience as a portfolio manager, risk manager and trader in equity, fixed income and derivative markets. She was previously the CIO of Crestline's Hedge Funds of Fund business, which grew assets under management to $4 billion at its peak, overseeing manager selection and portfolio management. From 1986 through 1997, Cooley was a derivatives trader and risk manager with Taylor and Company, an investment firm associated with the Bass Family of Fort Worth, TX (one of the earliest multi-asset, multi-strategy alternative asset managers). She began her career in the investment industry at Manufacturers Hanover Trust Company (later merged into JP Morgan) where she specialized in futures markets in both New York and Chicago after receiving her BA in Economics from The College of William and Mary in 1983. She serves on the Advisory Board of Texas Wall Street Women and the Investment Advisory Committee of Texas Employee Retirement System. She also serves on the Board of Directors of Catholic Charities of Fort Worth.
